BUSINESS AFFAIRS.

FRANCIS—VIGOR & SONS have one of the largest assortments of furniture in the city, and are selling it from ten to fifteen per cent less than any other house. For proof, call at their store and see what bargains may be had at new No 24 Market street, north side, below Gathright House. Repairs, varnishing, and upholstering done at short notice.

A few weeks ago when there was great fear of the stock of dry lumber, oak, doors, blinds &c., will fall short, owing to the vast amount of improvements in Louisville, it will be interesting to the public to know that Alexander L. & C. have undergone their factory and now make a larger quantity of dry lumber than ever before. Their office on Main street, ready to receive the gas house or at their factory on Fulton Avenue, Preston street.

FIRS FURNITURE.—Warren & Bennett keep constantly on hand a large stock of desirable parlor, office and chamber furniture, of all kinds and patterns which they sell at their warehouse at the lower price. Theirs are in one, 600 and 503 Market street, between Second and Third.

J. N. DUNLOP says the best of coal at his office, Third street, between Market and Jefferson. Give him your orders.

GREAT numbers are offered to the buyers of ready-made clothing at J. M. Armstrong's, on Main street, opposite the National Hotel. His goods are clean, fresh and fit. For men's wear it is large and the most desirable description. His assortment of boys' clothing is complete; also a large stock of heavy cloths for servants at buyer's prices. All American made.

We have just received Mr. McLean's Strengthening Cardials, bear testimony to the fact that no sensible effects follow their use, other than the immediate cessation of disease and unnatural feelings of restlessness. So to the expense of those who have used the Salve of Quinine, which it takes in large doses, invariably leaves the patient in a depressed and melancholy state of mind, and often, therefore, causes, at once, the efficacy of this invaluable remedy. Sold by druggists and dealers everywhere.

HIS let dependency may be the even prevailing bane of the fallen state of the human family. But, you ask, how is this to be prevented? Dependency, long sports, a tendency to look upon the gloomy side of everything, are all difficult to drive away. Doctors and medicine will not do it; the ordinary stimulating drinks of the day will not do it; but before you give the case up as hopeless, try Winans' Restorative Elixirs. As its name designates, it will put new life and animation into the drooping energies, yet, even young blood into your veins. Who comes upon the brink of the grave, who may have tried every means to raise him from the depth of despair, will be induced, though it may be at the eleventh hour, to try nothing inferior, but all respectable druggists throughout the United States and Canada J. WRIGHT & Co., sole proprietors, New Orleans, Louisiana. See advertisement.

MORE TEMPORARY. INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 20. Dr. C. W. SCHAFFER: For the past several months I have been laboring under great weakness and general debility, much of the time confined to my bed, and from which I received no benefit from my physician. After consulting of your advice, pills, wine, blood purifier, and poultices of young roots, Mr. Wm. H. Plummer, I feel as if a new person, almost entirely free from disease, and would recommend my remedies to all who are in need of invaluable remedies.

Yours truly, C. W. SCHAFFER.
See advertisement in adjacent column.

PERSONS who have used Dr. Shaffner's fever and ague pills, bear testimony to the fact that no sensible effects follow their use, other than the immediate cessation of disease and unnatural feelings of restlessness.
